

Vol. 16 No. 1 (2 January 1935)

Date : 12/09/21 1:43 PM

<https://nla.gov.au:443/tarkine/nla.obj-384375111>

Copyright Undetermined

Reason for copyright status: Serials have an open range of dates.

Copyright status was determined using the following information:

Material type: Literary Dramatic Musical

Copyright status may not be correct if data in the record is incomplete or inaccurate. For more information regarding Copyright in Library Collections visit <http://copyright.org.au> and <http://www.nla.gov.au/copyright-in-library-collections>

The National Library of Australia supports creativity, innovation and knowledge-exchange but does not endorse any inappropriate or derogatory use. Please respect indigenous cultural and ethical concerns.

6

VALERIE WEST
SOCIETY MILLINER

Now showing the latest models from New York, London and Paris.

9 IMPERIAL ARCADE
SYDNEY
PHONE M6147

Le Charme

Maco, 7 Rue Cavalerie
PARIS
(Gold Medal Exhibition, Paris, 1924)

Recommending for . . .
Society's Discriminating Women
Le Charme Aids to Beauty and especially the NEW
MOTHER OF PERLE
NAIL ENAMEL

Stocked exclusively by first-class stores throughout Australia

ADELAIDE PERRY

School of Drawing and Painting

Classes 10 a.m.—5 p.m. daily.
Evenings, 7 p.m.—9.30 p.m.

Class re-opens
Monday, February 13th.

Particulars on application.

Chamber of Commerce Bldg.,
36 Grosvenor Street, Sydney.

SPORTSWEAR
B
Y

JHANEL

SALE
O
F
Summer Clothes

Jan., Tuesday 15th to 22nd

25 ROWE ST., SYDNEY.
B 4070.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

SYDNEY.

ON December 12th, Miss Sophie Segart, second daughter of the Consul-General for Belgium, and Miss Segart, was married to Mr. Fraser B. Coss, of Wollstonecraft, second son of Mrs. W. J. Coss, and the late Mr. Coss. Mrs. Andre Brenne, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honour, and Miss Dorothy Coss, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Mr. Arthur Lay attended Mr. Coss as best man, and Mr. Andre Brenne was groomsmen. Following the ceremony which took place at St. Augustine's Church, Neutral Bay, Mr. and Mrs. Segart entertained at dinner at their home in Mosman. Mr. and Mrs. Coss expect to leave early in the New Year for a trip abroad.

ROMANOS celebrated its seventh birthday with a gala night on December 11th. Guests were entertained by a particularly good revue in which the star performers were Cia and Buddy Roberts of the Merry Malones company. Among those present were Miss Eileen Bell (Coochin-Coochin, Queensland), a guest of Miss Margaret Allen, Miss Allen, Mrs. Erid Wisenholz, Commander Gifford, Mr. Walter Ipe, Mr. William Feilding, a visitor from England, Mr. Dennis Allen, Miss Hesa Roberts, Sir Peter and Lady Harlick, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Feilding Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Heath, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crossing, Mr. and Mrs. Langford Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sayres, and Mr. Carlton Kelly and his fiancée, Miss Peggy Walkler.

MR. AND MRS. M. F. BRUXNER, of Rose Bay, are expected to return from New Zealand this month, where they have been since the middle of December.

MR. AND MRS. ROONEY DANGAR invited about two hundred and fifty guests for cocktails at the Royal Sydney Golf Club on Wednesday afternoon, December 12th, in honour of Mrs. Dangar's sister-in-law, Mrs. R. M. Bell, of Queensland. The club-rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers, and the three trophies won by Mr. Dangar's famous horse, Peter Pan, were displayed. Among the guests present were Sir Philip and Lady Street, Sir Thomas and Lady Bayne, Sir Alexander and Lady Macarthur, Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Brunner, Sir Claude and Lady Hoisington, Miss Marjorie Dangar, Miss Margaret Allen, Miss Eileen Bell, Miss Barbara Knox, Miss Barbara Warty, Miss Anne Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lloyd Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Harders, Miss Faith Macarthur Onslow, and others.

Mlle. ALICE DELYSIA, the popular French actress, who has been playing in both Melbourne and Sydney, unfortunately had to cut short her Australian season due to personal affairs in France, and returned last month, saying "Au revoir" and not good-bye to her appreciative Australian audience. Before leaving, Mlle. Delysia took a leading part in organising a charity matinee at the Lyvoti. A most entertaining programme was presented, including numbers by Delysia, Robert Chisholm, Shirley Dale, John Moore, Prudence Vandrough and others. The social committee was headed by Lady Gordon, and the members' list included Lady Walker, Lady Penrith, Lady Kingsmill, Lady Julius, Lady Sheldon, Lady Bayne, Mrs. F. R. Jordan, Miss Jean Cheriton and others. Members of the Independent Theatre group and several Deane students also assisted by selling flowers and sweets.

MRS. FVIE WATT entertained at a late afternoon party at the Royal Sydney Golf Club on Monday afternoon, December 17th, in honour of her niece, Miss Pauline Spencer-Parsons, and her nephew, Mr. Charles Spencer-Parsons, before their return to Tasmania.

MISS WINIFRED KING, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. King, of Neutral Bay, announced her engagement early last month to Mr. Soderick Dodson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dodson, of England. Miss King expects to sail in February for England, where her marriage will take place soon afterwards.

AN interesting engagement recently announced is that of Miss Peter Stewart, daughter of Mr. Ashol Stewart, and Mr. Ray Griffin, son of Mrs. W. J. Griffin, and the late Mr. Griffin.

MRS. C. M. C. MACCORMICK and her two children returned shortly before Christmas from several months spent in Schenectady, New York, with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wright.

MR. AND MRS. D. E. WRIGLEY, of Leura, for the summer months, and do not expect to return to their delightful flat in Bellevue Hill until they return from their trip to America.

MR. AND MRS. REG BETTINGTON are spending their holidays in New Zealand with Mrs. Bettington's family, Mr. and Mrs. Lowry, of Hawkes Bay. They expect to return the latter part of this month.

THE many friends of Patrick White, Mr. and Mrs. Victor White's clever son, who is now studying at Oxford, will be interested to hear that his first completed effort at play-writing has been sent out to Miss Beryl Bryant, who intends to produce it at her Play-house in Earlshurst early in January. Mr. White's sister, Miss Suzanne White, who is noted for her keenness for amateur acting, will take part in the play, which has the intriguing title of Friend and Butler to Women.

MISS ALIX LAMB recently returned from an interesting trip to England, where she enjoyed the varying experiences of being bridesmaid to Betty Ross Gore at her wedding to Lewis Shaw, appearing in Firestorm and doing a term's study at the Academy of Dramatic Art. Before she went abroad Miss Lamb was one of the most talented of our local amateur actresses, and she is also versatile enough to be a crack hockey player as well.

THE MISSES MARGARET AND HELEN JOHNSTONE, the two pretty daughters of Mrs. J. M. Johnstone, of Mosman, are excitedly planning for a trip to England, leaving early in January. Margaret, who has taken part in several of the Independent Theatre's productions, intends to go on with her study of dramatic art at the Royal Academy.

ONE of the most representative women's Executives ever called together is that formed in connection with Lady Game's Farewell Garden Party on January 11th for the Bush and District Nursing Associations, and includes the wives of the leaders of Sydney's social, church, political, banking, military, naval, air-force, theatrical, cinema and academic institutions. The function is to be a huge theatrical garden party, open to the public, with a continuous programme being staged in various parts of the grounds, including items by the visiting operatic stars, J. C. Williamson's leading artists and others. A special sound stage will be erected on which an actual scene from an Australian picture in production by Grosvenor Studios will be taken. All the work connected with the making of a motion picture in Australia will be presented, including all details of production, including camera work, light work, direction, rehearsal and the actual taking of the film. One representative of each organisation is being invited to attend officially to say good-bye to Lady Game on behalf of its members.

Ada Guilloyle

Day and Evening Frocks — Tailored Suits and Coats. Every mode designed to express the personality of the wearer! Robe lengths of imported material always on hand.

706 Cullivulla Chambers, 67 Castlereagh Street, Sydney.
Lolc of Peter Robinson's, London, and David Jones, Sydney, MA 3244

The HOME, January 2nd, 1935.

Sophisticated Distinctive..

"Judith" HATS

83 CASTLEREAGH ST.
SYDNEY

Cash's WASHING RIBBONS for Lingerie
Its New after repeated washing

A MACDONALD WAVE

Long Lived
LOVELINESS

The beauty of your hair depends so much on beauty of wave that the very best wave is essential. The Macdonald Steam Wave is the proved best wave—42 Grand Awards in Open International Competition say so.

You too will agree that it is without equal for beauty and permanency once you have had a Macdonald wave.

BORROWMAN
THE PERMANENT WAVE SPECIALIST
340 FLORE, ST JAMES BUILDING
109 ELIZABETH STREET, SYDNEY
PHONE: MA 2733-2833
Best Steam for Even 30th Days